

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE C.G. JUNG CLUB OF ORANGE COUNTY

Approved by Members Present at the Annual Meeting
May 23, 2010

Article 1. Name

The name of this association shall be the C.G. Jung Club of Orange County.

Article 2. Principal Office

The principal office for the transaction of business shall be located in Orange County, California.

Article 3. Purposes

A. The C.G. Jung Club of Orange County is organized exclusively for educational purposes under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Specifically, the association promotes an interest in and understanding of Jungian Psychology through the presentation of events such as lectures, workshops and conferences open to members and the general public. The association also cultivates a collegial environment in which participants can experience personal development and growth

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an association exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No substantial part of the activities of this association shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the association shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Article 4. Powers

Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this association shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the specific purposes of this association.

Article 5. Membership

A. The Association shall have three classes of members, general members, emeritus members, and honorary members.

B. The rights and privileges of members and their liability for dues shall be as stated in the bylaws.

Article 6. Governing Body

The powers of the association shall be exercised and its property controlled by a governing board, including the offices of president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary. Other members of the governing board may be set forth by the bylaws. The qualifications, time and manner of electing, terms and duties of office, and manner of filling vacancies shall be set forth in the bylaws.

Article 8. Amendments to Articles

These articles may be amended or repealed, in whole or in part, only by a majority vote of this association's voting members present at any duly organized meeting of the association.

Article 9. Bylaws

Bylaws will be hereafter adopted. Such bylaws may be amended or repealed, in whole or in part, in the manner provided therein, and the amendments to the bylaws shall be binding on all members, including those who may have voted against them.

Article 10. Dedication and Dissolution

The property of this association is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this association shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person. Upon the dissolution or winding up of the association, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this association shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and/or scientific purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.